Buena Vista Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Buena Vista, Va., March 26.—"American Beauties" and "The Only Young Man in Town" were presented at the assembly on Monday evening by the Dramatic Club. There is some excellent talent among the young women of the school, and their excellent training was shown to good advantage on that occasion. The Easter services at the Episcopal Church this year will be unusually good. Special music will be rendered by a vested choir of eighteen voices. The conference year at the Methodist Church closed on Sunday, and Tuesday evening Dr. W. H. D. Harper and Rev. J. S. Burke left for Washington to attend the session of the Baltimore Conference.

In the absence of Dr. Harper, services will be conducted next Sunday by Rev. John W. Parish. With Easter, the social life of the city will take on new life. Invitations have been issued for the Easter games, which will be given in the Opera House on Friday evening, April 1. Several other entertainments will be held next week. The past week being Holy Week, things have been very quiet. Services were held in the Episcopal Church, Good Friday at 11 o'clock. J. P. Raudenbush, who has been the guest of his daughter, Mrs. R. A. DePriest, for the past month, left for his home in Selingsgrove, Pa., Tuesday evening. Miss Ellen Cameron, who has been the guest of Mrs. W. J. Wright.

left Tuesday afternoon for Hot Springs, Newbern, N. C., March 26.—Mrs. S. H. Scott, Mrs. L. H. Cutler, Sr., Mrs. N. W. Jones and Mrs. E. H. Harrison are in Elizabeth City attending a State meeting of the Home Missionary Society of the Methodist Church. Mrs. C. W. Munger and Miss Maud

Munger spent several days this week in Norfolk. Mrs. H. R. Bryan is visiting her daughter in Fayetteville, N. C. Miss Lila May Willis has returned home after spending a short time with friends in Wilmington and Southport. Miss Daisy Edwards, of the Norfolk and Southern Railroad office, has returned home from a trip to Florida, where she visited her sister Mrs. H. P. Johnson, of Miami City. Mrs. W. B. Vadasworth is visiting relatives in Beaufort, her former home. Mrs. M. A. Benton, of Black Mountain, who is spending the winter in Newbern, spent several days this week with friends in Trenton, N. C. Rev. C. L. Graves has returned home from Oxford, N. C., where he preached a sermon before the State convention of the Woman's Missionary

Union, of the Baptist Church. Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Thornton are visiting friends in Norfolk. Mrs. H. B. Craven is visiting her sister, Mrs. W. J. Holt, in Duke, N. C. T. A. Green has returned home from Oxford, where he attended a meeting of the directors of the Oxford Orphan Asylum. Mrs. Estelle Smith, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. M. Hughes, in Norfolk, has returned home. E. D. Spencer, of New York City, spent several days here this week with his brother, the Messrs. Spencer. Claud Wolfe will leave Monday for Danville, Va., where he will join the Danville ball team for the season. Mrs. W. B. Jolley and children, and Mrs. J. L. Harris, of Hampton, were guests this week of Mrs. R. L. Spencer.

Miss Smith and O. Stensrud will leave Monday for a trip to the North-west and Canada. G. L. H. Johnson, of Franklin, and L. C. Lindsey, of Portsmouth, former students here, visited Williamsburg this week. Ensign A. H. Miles, U. S. N., has returned from a Richmond hospital, where he recently underwent an operation. He is rapidly recovering his strength. E. H. Gloves, of Richmond, was a visitor here the first of the week. Hill Montague, of Richmond, and Dr. W. P. Turner, of Surry, prominent Odd-Fellows, were guests of Hamilton Lodge Tuesday night. A banquet was given in honor of the visitors.

Williamsburg Social News.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] Williamsburg, Va., March 26.—The Baptist Sunday school will give an egg-hunt Easter Monday, on the old Armistead lot in the West End. Miss Julia Tyler has returned from a visit of several weeks to friends in Kentucky and Richmond. Mrs. Samuel Moore, of Loudoun,
